WELCOME TO THE BIRKMAN PREVIEW

The Birkman Preview report provides an introductory overview of much of the career and relationship data generated by your responses to The Birkman Method[®] questionnaire.

The Birkman Method[®] was created from exhaustive empirical research in the workplace. Over 2.5 million people have taken the assessment since its development in the 1950s. Over the years, it has been repeatedly validated and has shown to have been reliable and consistent with contemporary psychological theory.

Many assessments describe socialized, visible behavior. The Birkman Method[®] reaches further to analyze and report what drives and motivates behavior. We call these "Needs" — the expectations one has about relationships and situations in a social context. These Needs motivate personal actions and behaviors. When Needs are met, they drive behavior in positive and productive directions. Unmet needs can create potentially negative and less than productive behavior (Stress).

The Birkman Method[®] recognizes the intrinsic value of all styles of behavior and the importance of contrasting perspectives. As with all Birkman reporting, the Preview report offers a non-judgmental approach to individual differences. It is designed to be both descriptive and prescriptive.

The Birkman Preview discusses the occupational and organizational perspectives that will shape teams, career and job role fit.

Birkman International, Inc. has a high commitment to respecting your privacy. Your data will be maintained in our secure database and shall remain accessible only to authorized parties for future reference.

While the Preview provides a great deal of information to help you understand as much as possible about yourself, it's important to know that the depth and variety of applications provided by The Birkman Method[®] cannot be covered in this preliminary overview. Most people benefit from the expertise of Birkman-certified consultants in "reaching further" into the wealth of information that can be derived from your responses to The Birkman Method[®] questionnaire.

YOUR LIFE STYLE GRID[®] REPORT

DISCOVER YOUR TRUE COLORS

Birkman's Life Style Grid uses four color codes and four important symbols to reveal:

- * Your interests and the kinds of activities you usually prefer (your Asterisk)
- ◇ Your usual style - how you behave in normal conditions, your most effective style (your Diamond)
- Your needs - the support or motivation you need from others or from your environment to be effective (your Circle)
- How you react under stress. How your usual style changes when your needs aren't met (your Square)

PAY ATTENTION TO HOW CLOSE YOUR SYMBOLS ARE TO THE LINES DIVIDING THE COLOR QUADRANTS. For example, when your Asterisk is close to the line, you may have interests from colors on either side of the line. When your Circle is close to the line, you may share needs with both colors, and so on. The closer your symbols are to the center of the Grid, the more likely you are to be influenced by the characteristics of the other quadrants.

- Reveal your focus:
Are you Task-Oriented, represented by the left two quadrants, or People-Oriented, represented by the right two quadrants?
- Discover how your unique strengths move you toward a distinct personal style:
Are you a Planner (Blue quadrant), Communicator (Green quadrant), Expediter (Red quadrant), or Administrator (Yellow quadrant)?

AREAS OF INTEREST SOME OF YOUR MOST IMPORTANT NEEDS

Here you'll find types of work you'd love, the hobbies that would captivate you, the activities or interests that bring real pleasure and fulfillment. The Areas of Interest Report shows to what degree you share common interests with most others in various occupations. The area where there is a high correspondence indicates areas that offer either work you'd be likely to enjoy, or activities you'd particularly appreciate.

Interest doesn't relate to talent or skill. You could, for example, really enjoy and value music without being a musician, or have a deep interest in science even without personal capabilities in the field. When your interest in any area is high, it can be a strong motivator. Fulfilling your interests is a key to both a successful career and a satisfying lifestyle.

The colored bars featured in several report formats, including the Areas of Interest Report, indicate various individual styles or composites of styles described through The Birkman Method[®]:

Red - Expediter

Green - Communicator

Blue - Planner

Yellow - Administrator

YOUR STRENGTHS AND NEEDS

In personal relationships, work challenges, organizing, decision making and more, here's how you deal with everyday life. The following information can provide insights to deepen your understanding of how these factors operate in all your relational areas.

You gain knowledge about your usual style, considered your most effective style or your natural strengths. Very importantly, you also see how your needs determine your ideal work environment and your possible reactions when these needs are not met.

The Birkman Method[®] Strengths and Needs Report develops your own personal profile and guide to show you the most effective way to deal with:

- Relating to individuals, groups (and feelings)
- Handling schedules, systems, procedures, details
- Resolving conflict, authority issues and personal independence
- Decision making, inclination toward action, patience
- Risk taking, incentives, security
- Work place intensities, personal life commitments

These areas and others on the Strengths and Needs Report are designed in both verbal and graphic form (represented by 3 shaded bars) to provide information on your usual style, what you need in your ideal environment and which behaviors to try to avoid. An example of the first bar, Usual Style, is shown below.

Each of the three bars symbolizes a range of behaviors that increase in intensity as those particular behaviors move toward either end of the bar. The lightly shaded mid-range on the bar denotes behavior that is less intense and not as easily recognized. The arrow pinpoints your individual score on this spectrum.

YOUR PERSONAL STRENGTHS AND NEEDS

Social Relationships (Need for Acceptance)

Among your considerable assets is your ability to think and reason independently of group pressure while at the same time recognizing the importance of group dynamics. As appropriate, you are able to be either independent or involved.

STRENGTHS

- balances group and private activities
- able to be alone
- able to be with others

NEED: In order for you to be really comfortable in group settings, it is important that you have plenty of time to yourself, with relief from constant social pressure. It is easiest for you to participate in groups when you identify strongly with their cause.

CAUSES OF STRESS: Without this identity of cause, or when the pressure to participate in group efforts becomes prolonged or intense, you are likely to feel impatient, perhaps even that time spent with the group is wasted.

POSSIBLE STRESS REACTIONS WHEN NEEDS ARE NOT MET:

- withdrawal
- impatience
- tendency to ignore groups

BX6396

YOUR PERSONAL STRENGTHS AND NEEDS Organizing (Need for Structure)

Focusing your attention on methods and procedures, you place great value on policies which have been tried and proven. You recognize the importance of attending to detail, being generally careful and thorough.

STRENGTHS

- systematic
- detail-oriented
- procedure-minded

NEED: Your activities should involve a balance of familiar and predictable situations with opportunities for expression of your initiative. In any case, it is important for you to maintain a sense of control.

CAUSES OF STRESS: When pushed to change your plan of action, you may experience more pressure than other people. Also, too much attention to details can cause you to lose sight of the broad objectives.

POSSIBLE STRESS REACTIONS WHEN NEEDS ARE NOT MET:

- de-emphasis on system
- over-controlling

BX6396

YOUR PERSONAL STRENGTHS AND NEEDS

Authority Relationships (Need for Authority)

Usual Style:

low-key in the exercise of authority

a balance

directive and commanding

You show a healthy respect for established authority, whether verbal or in the form of formal procedure and control. It is relatively easy for you to take charge and direct activities, and see to it that pre-arranged plans are executed.

STRENGTHS

- self-assertive
- seeks to influence and excel
- enjoys exercising authority

Will Need:

a non-directive, democratic environment

a balance

to know who is in charge

NEED: From others, you need personal and clear instructions as to what they expect to have done. You respect people who appear to you to be natural authority figures, and expect them to enforce strictly the boundaries of authority.

CAUSES OF STRESS: You can easily lose your respect for those in positions of authority when it seems that they are having difficulty showing strength. Your morale and enthusiasm suffer in these situations.

Try to Avoid:

failing to address issues of control

a balance

becoming domineering, controlling

POSSIBLE STRESS REACTIONS WHEN NEEDS ARE NOT MET:

- provocative statements
- undue assertiveness
- becoming bossy or domineering

BX6396

YOUR PERSONAL STRENGTHS AND NEEDS Idealism and Realism (Need for Advantage)

Your self-image of being competitive gives you a decided advantage in promotional activities. You are realistic in your expectations of others, and can use your creativity in the art of winning to protect and promote your personal interests.

STRENGTHS

- likes competition
- opportunity-minded
- resourceful

NEED: While you need to be dealt with on the basis of individual incentive, this should be balanced with opportunities to help others. You need an environment which stresses the element of fair play, but still offers you a sense of advantage.

CAUSES OF STRESS: Since you expect others to be competitive on an "average" level, you can be surprised when they seem to be too self-serving or overly idealistic and impractical. Your response to either is likely to be distrust and suspicion.

POSSIBLE STRESS REACTIONS WHEN NEEDS ARE NOT MET:

- being impractical
- becoming opportunistic

YOUR PERSONAL STRENGTHS AND NEEDS Reflection and Action (Need for Activity)

Your high energy level affords you the considerable assets of vigorous and persuasive reasoning and a generally forceful and enthusiastic approach to everything you do. You find it easy to be physically active on a regular basis.

STRENGTHS

- enthusiastic
- energetic
- forceful

NEED: However, you prefer to be in control regarding the spending of your energies. It is best when your environment neither places the demands of a heavy schedule upon you, nor emphasizes thought and reflection to the exclusion of personal action.

CAUSES OF STRESS: External demands on your energies, either physical or mental, are likely to be frustrating to you. When you are denied the opportunity to balance planning with action, your naturally high energy level may result in unexpected fatigue.

POSSIBLE STRESS REACTIONS WHEN NEEDS ARE NOT MET:

- edginess
- feeling fatigued

YOUR PERSONAL STRENGTHS AND NEEDS Your View of Yourself (Need for Challenge)

More than most people, you tend to focus on your personal shortcomings rather than your strengths. As a result, you are able to take a great deal of pride in your accomplishments, and respond well to difficult or demanding tasks and goals.

STRENGTHS

- driven
- strong-willed
- high expectations

NEED: You tend to place a lot of conditions on your personal acceptance, so establishing your worth is largely a matter of achievement. Personally challenging situations enhance your strengths.

CAUSES OF STRESS: You are likely too inclined to blame yourself for failure. On occasions you tend to think that renewed personal effort will resolve problems that may not be of your making in the first place.

POSSIBLE STRESS REACTIONS WHEN NEEDS ARE NOT MET:

- becoming too self-critical
- strong emotional tension
- feelings of inadequacy

YOUR PERSONAL STRENGTHS AND NEEDS Dealing with Emotions (Need for Empathy)

Basically, you prefer to strike a balance between cautious detachment and sincere emotional involvement. But you are able to move freely between those extremes, avoiding excessive emotionalism and complete detachment as well.

STRENGTHS

- objective, yet sympathetic
- warm, yet practical

NEED: You need a similar balance in your surroundings. You are at your best in the presence of people who can combine logic and practicality with a certain amount of sympathy and understanding for personal feelings.

CAUSES OF STRESS: Extremes in other people are likely to put some pressure on your own moderation. Too much emotionalism from others can add to your anxiety and tension; while you may tend to magnify your own problems when others are too detached.

POSSIBLE STRESS REACTIONS WHEN NEEDS ARE NOT MET:

- dejection
- becoming too impersonal
- loss of optimism

YOUR PERSONAL STRENGTHS AND NEEDS

Making Decisions (Need for Thought)

With one eye on the future and one eye on the present, you tend to make decisions in a moderate but effective manner. You are definitely not impulsive, but you also recognize that you don't have to have all the data before you can make a decision.

STRENGTHS

- thoughtfully decisive
- considers future and immediate consequences

NEED: The moderate nature of your decision-making style indicates that you can be comfortable handling situations that require quick judgments and decisions, and problems that are more complex, as long as sufficient information is available for consideration.

CAUSES OF STRESS: On pressure assignments which require quick and decisive action, insecurity can make you overly cautious because you want to see all possibilities and consequences. On the other hand, you can become quite impatient waiting on decisions from others.

POSSIBLE STRESS REACTIONS WHEN NEEDS ARE NOT MET:

- delaying actions
- becoming too cautious

CAREER MANAGEMENT REPORT

The Career Management Report helps to better match your career choices with your personality, the kind of things that motivate you, and your interests.

The Career Management Report is organized into three sections, as follows:

- Organizational Focus, which will help you determine the work environment that suits you best.
- Job Families/Job Titles that offer you the greatest potential for success.
- Career Summary, a list of strengths that you bring to the work that you do.

Organizational Focus

The Organizational Focus tells you the general work environment in which you're going to feel most motivated and most comfortable. We generate this information by determining how similar you are to other people who work in these work environments.

Job Families/Job Titles

The Job Families/Job Titles tell you how closely you match employees in 22 job families (and in a large number of individual jobs). Most of the Job Titles that you match will have a direct link to the U.S. Department of Labor's online Occupational Outlook Handbook so you can find out more information about pay, conditions, and job prospects. International users may wish to choose the Job Families Only option, since the U.S. data may not be useful to them.

Career Summary

The Career Summary is an overview of the strengths you will probably bring to the work you do. These strengths are extracted from the Organizational Focus and Job Families/Job Titles sections.

Your career decisions should be based on many factors, including your experience, your education, and your preferences. We believe that the Career Management Report will provide useful information in many of these areas.

Rather than represent you in terms of your strongest Organizational Focus, we use all four. The color bars that describe your Focus may be of varying lengths: all long, all short, or a mixture.

The bottom color of the four is always the longest. The longer the bar, the more you are likely to identify with the work environment represented by that color.

The second longest bar is your supporting color. It's less significant for you than your bottom-line color, but it will give you additional information about the work environment that fits you best.

The two remaining bars represent work environments which are likely to be less attractive for you, and where you are less likely to "fit".
